PRESS RELEASE

Currently one of the most notable country rock Spanish musicians, InBlauk already recorded two albums - "Wild Way" (2010) and "Love & Dust" (2012) – that received the best reviews from specialized press.

Along with having given concerts in Nashville and many other cities from the south of United States, he has already toured Europe on tour with the Texan musician Daniel Payene and came to be the guest artist of Texas Sounds International Country Music Awards, where he received the award for Best Male Performer of The Year. In 2015 he was invited to perform on Country to Country Festival on The O2 Arena of London, capturing the attention of Maverick and CM&T.

The musician is currently working on his next record, continuing performing live around the world.

Press citations on InBlauK:

"If a film studio needed an incredible soundtrack for a modern day western movie, you could not ask for a faster rising talent than InBlauk to provide it. Fantastic guitar riffs only compliment strong lyrics blending with a raw voice that reminds one of Jon Bon Jovi", Green Music Scene (Texas)

"Inblauk is the Bon Jovi of Spanish Country, the song "my friend" really hits home", Bob Wayne

"I listen to her new album" Love & Dust "and me goose bumps, I can feel his soul tearing down his throat, his hands stroking his guitar, I can see how he feels his music, giving himself to his audience at every concert. It is more than a musician, an artist, a great artist, the music does not come out of his throat, his music comes out of the soul", Country España
